As you will recall, the Bureau is conducting an applicant type investigation on the above-named individual at the request of the Central Intelligence Agency. It was indicated by Central Intelligence Agency at the time the request for investigation was received, that Dulles was being considered as an intermittent consultant.

In connection with the applicant investigation, Professor [REDACTED] of the Department of Politics, Princeton University, was interviewed by an Agent assigned to the Newark Office. [REDACTED] highly recommended Dulles and in addition volunteered that in his opinion Dulles is slated to be the next Director of the Central Intelligence Agency, and that he will probably take over this position as soon as the reorganization of this Agency has been completed.

As you will recall this Bureau was conducting an applicant type investigation on the above-named individual for CIA.

The investigation has been completed with the exception of the result of the check of the Security Division of the State Department which will be forwarded to CIA upon receipt of same from the State Department.

Investigation did not develop any derogatory information as to Mr. Dulles.

It will be recalled that Mr. Dulles was the chairman of a three-man committee which made a survey of CIA in 1948. In addition to other observations made concerning the FBI which were not accurate the general line of reasoning as to the FBI in this report is as follows:

The FBI is essentially a police organization, works on an individual case basis, and does not study, coordinate or evaluate the over-all intelligence situation in the United States.

b7C

It is interesting to note that the report of SA Rufus T. Tyson at Newark, dated 1/13/51, reflects an interview with [redacted] the Department of Politics, Princeton University. He recommended Mr. Dulles and volunteered the information that it is his opinion that Dulles is slated to be the next director of the Central Intelligence Agency and that he will probably take over this position as soon as the reorganization of this agency has been completed.

RECOMMENDATION:

DECLASSIFIED ON 1/18/98

BY 60267 MSA/CW 406648

It is recommended that the statement by [redacted] concerning the possibility of Dulles being the next director of the CIA be left in the Newark report.

RECORDED - 126 1/18/98 - 3
In the event this recommendation is approved the attached letter of transmittal to CIA should be forwarded.

MISCELLANEOUS

No derogatory information was found in a review of the applicant's State Department Security File.

[REDACTED] the Investigations Division of the Civil Service Commission advised that a check of the CSC Records show a reference to one ALLEN DULLES in the Washington Post for September 2, 1950, in an article captioned "East German Reds Purge Six High Aides". This article mentions one NOEL H. FIELD, who had disappeared in East Germany after being branded an American Spy by WALTER ULRICH, East German Deputy Chancellor. FIELD, according to the Post, was supposed to have been a crony of ALLEN DULLES, Director of the OSS in Switzerland during World War II. FIELD was alleged to have delivered secret papers of Communist Plans to DULLES.

You will recall that by letter dated April 10, 1952, Mr. Dulles made inquiry regarding the disposition of a matter reported by the Bureau and which made reference to him. Mr. Dulles had reference to a letter dated March 22, 1952, captioned, "Hungarian Intelligence Activities in the United States, Internal Security R - HU," which was directed to the Department of State, and a copy of which had been designated for the Director, Central Intelligence Agency (CIA). A portion of the letter set forth information indicating that Allen Dulles and his wife had been arrested in Hungary in 1947 or 1948. Subsequently the CIA furnished information reflecting that the references to Dulles and his wife were without any foundation whatsoever. The Department of State was so advised by letter dated April 15, 1952, a copy of which was directed to Mr. Dulles by cover letter of the same date.

Recently Dulles informally inquired of Liaison Agent Papich if the original letter to the Department of State dated March 22, 1952, could be withdrawn and replaced with another communication eliminating the references to Dulles. He was told that it was very doubtful that such action could be taken, particularly when the Bureau already had advised the Department of State that the information pertaining to Dulles was without foundation. The Liaison Agent told Dulles that it appeared that the Bureau certainly had made the records straight as far as Dulles was concerned and his desire to have the letter retracted from the Department of State seemed to be unnecessary. He was further told that if he specifically desired that the letter be retracted from the Department of State and if he wanted to make it an official matter, his request would be referred to the Bureau for appropriate consideration. It was pointed out to Dulles that if he was interested in making the letter an issue of major proportion, the Bureau awaited his request. Dulles was obviously taken back, and he immediately replied that he definitely did not want to make "a big thing" of the letter; that it was not that important; and that maybe it would be better to drop the matter.

Reference is made to my previous memoranda indicating that Allen Dulles would become the Director of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA). As you know, newspaper releases of January 24 and 25, 1953, reflected that President Eisenhower had officially announced that Dulles would be his choice for the Director of CIA and that the President would designate Lieutenant General Charles Cabell as the Deputy Director for the agency.

On January 23, 1953, Dulles advised Liaison Agent Papich that he had been "officially assured" that he would be the Director of CIA. He pointed out that he, of course, would not officially take over the duties until he was confirmed by the Senate. He further stated that General Smith would not officially relinquish his duties as Director of CIA until he was confirmed for his new post in the Department of State. Dulles expected to officially take over the duties as Director on or about February 2, 1953.

Dulles stated that he looked forward to maintaining a cooperative relationship with the Bureau and he hoped that after he was confirmed he would be able to confer with the Director. Dulles indicated that after his confirmation he would "like to confer with Mr. Hoover."

James Angleton of the CIA advised Agent Papich that FBI-CIA relations was the subject of a conversation between him and Dulles on January 22, 1953. Angleton stated that Dulles definitely desires to maintain smooth and cooperative relations with the Bureau; that "he has the greatest respect in the world for Mr. Hoover" and that Dulles will make a point of avoiding any conflicts with the Bureau. Angleton indicated that Dulles already has conferred with Attorney General Brownell regarding Bureau-CIA relations. Angleton stated that he was not aware of the complete results of the conference with Brownell but it was his understanding that Brownell had instructed Dulles to be certain that good working relations existed between the CIA and the Bureau.

ACTION: The Liaison Agent will endeavor to obtain any additional details concerning Dulles' intention to confer with the Director.

By letter dated 9/30/61, Mr. Dulles expressed his appreciation for the kind letter the Director had sent to him on 9/27/61, concerning his retirement as Director of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA). Mr. Dulles noted in his letter that the close and effective association he has enjoyed with the Bureau during his tenure as Director of CIA has been a most satisfying aspect of his work. He stated that it would be several weeks before he would be turning over his office to the new Director, John A. McCone, and during this period he would like to personally call on the Director to express his appreciation to Mr. Hoover and to do whatever he could to facilitate a smooth transition to his successor regarding the close cooperation between the Bureau and CIA.

BIOGRAPHICAL DATA:

Allen W.

Mr. Dulles was born on 4/7/93 in Watertown, New York. He received M. A. and LL. B. degrees from Princeton University in 1914 and 1916 and an LL. B. degree from The George Washington University in 1926. He practiced law for several years in New York City and has held numerous positions in the U. S. Diplomatic Service. He was appointed Deputy Director of CIA in August, 1951, and became the Director of this Agency on 2/26/53. During World War II, he was top official in the Office of Strategic Services.

INFORMATION IN BUFILES:

Due to the exigency of this memorandum, the file search has been limited to recent summaries and main files.

The Bureau conducted an applicant-type investigation of Mr. Dulles in 1951 at the request of CIA when he was being considered for an appointment as an intermittent consultant for that organization. No derogatory information was developed during this investigation. (118-8914)

Jones to DeLoach Memo
RE: Allen W. Dulles

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Bufiles reflect that our relations with CIA over the years have been generally satisfactory although numerous occasions periodically arise when the Bureau and CIA representatives must resolve difficulties. We do, however, enjoy excellent relations with Mr. Dulles and the Director has exchanged cordial correspondence with him. Mr. Dulles has made many public statements indicating admiration for the Director and the FBI and he has been cooperative with the Bureau and has supported the FBI on numerous occasions. It is noted that in January, 1961, Mr. Dulles made an informal talk before the Committee on Teaching Communism and the Bill of Rights of the American Bar Association during which he complimented the Director and the FBI for having done a splendid job in keeping tabs on communists in this country. The Director wrote Mr. Dulles on 9/27/61 to express his thanks for the cooperation and assistance Mr. Dulles has given the Bureau during his tenure as Director of CIA. Mr. Dulles' incoming letter is in answer to this communication.

Inasmuch as Mr. Dulles will undoubtedly comment to the Director regarding his successor, a summary memorandum dated 9/27/61 concerning John A. McCone is attached for Mr. Hoover's information.

It is noted that on 9/29/61, the Bureau Liaison Agent conversed with Mr. Dulles regarding his plans for the future and the general reaction of personnel in CIA as to the appointment of McCone as his successor. Mr. Dulles advised the Agent that he does not plan to retire to a rocking chair and he expects to be in frequent contact with the White House and McCone and will not divorce himself from international communism matters. Mr. Dulles stated during the conversation that he possibly would write a book or two on communism or the Soviet Union, but these books would not involve his work in CIA nor would they concern his personal experiences. He noted that McCone had intimated to him that no immediate organizational changes would be made in CIA. The memorandum reflecting this conversation, dated 10/2/61, is attached.
